

The Walkers 2019, Vol 57 "Jazz New Disk"

1st Album from Koji Yoneyama a jazz guitarist living in New York

First song in the album [Everything I Love] introduces us to his amazing guitar skills making us feel like we're there in New York. Born in Osaka 1987, he was in a rock band during his high school days then moved to Jazz music at the age of 21. After learning skills from his master Takeda Kazuhiko he started making music at New York in 2012 and he finally got his first album released. [My Ideal] is a song with great emotion but a bit of sorrow, in contrary [New Waltz] is a song that starts with a unison of guitar and bass and the guitar/piano solo parts in the song are great, makes me want to listen to it live. [Two special people] that has an alternative take with its singing like guitar is very pleasant to listen to. He is the only regular Asian guitarist at the home of gospel NY Harlem church the sound he makes is amazing, a guitarist to check out!
